Grandstream's GXP280 and GXP1200

Why pay more for additional lines if you don't need them? Most SOHO environments need only one or two incoming phone lines and don't require a three, four, or six-line desk phone. Grandstream's popular GXP280 and GXP1200 IP Desk Phones offer rich telephony features and industry-leading audio quality at a fraction of the competition's cost. You chose VoIP to get more out of your phone system and to save money. Grandstream can help you to do both.
