Celebrating
DEI NOBILE DI MONTEPULCIANO

Wine Spectator
TOP 100 WINES OF 2023
#34

"A smooth red, with cherry, plum and spice flavors shaded by savory underbrush and wild herb accents. Shows iron and tobacco details on the long finish, with fine balance and grip overall. Prugnolo Gentile and Canaiolo. Best from 2024 through 2040. 10,000 cases made, 3,500 cases imported."

Congratulations to Dei!

We are thrilled for our friends at DEI winery to receive this wonderful recognition from Wine Spectator for their Nobile di Montepulciano!

Made from Sangiovese, with small quantities of complementary varieties, the Nobile di Montepulciano has a brilliant ruby red color, with garnet tinges as it ages. Intense bouquet with aromas of ripe cherries, plum, and violets. It's full body and velvety tannins are balanced by its fine acidity. This wine is decidedly persistent and harmonious.

Winter is here and we're feeling the bold whites and smooth reds

Ahh winter -- time for fluffy slippers, freaky-cold temps, fire pits, and star-covered night skies. We love it all.

This issue highlights a few of our favorite smooth reds and bold whites that make this winter-wonderland even more fun to take in from the comforts of our couches.

Sit back, grab a glass, and let us inspire you to try something new, as we say Saluti to winter!

The Fanetti family has been crafting traditionally styled wines that have been a crowd-favorite for years because they use the highest quality grapes from one of Italy's most famed wine-producing regions.

Made from 80% Prugnolo gentile-Sangiovese and 20% Canaiolo the Fanetti Vino Nobile di Montepulciano has great body and is smooth upon sip through finish.

Get ready to find your groovy! With its don't-fix-it-if-it's-not-broken iconic label, the Fanetti Vino Nobile di Montepulciano is arguably the OG from the Tuscan hills that you absolutely MUST try!

From the hills of Tuscany, Fattoria Rodano

Located in the heart of the Chianti Classico in the famed region of Castellina in Chianti. The original farm dates to the Middle Ages and sits on the historic "Via Franchigena" used by pilgrims to travel from northern Europe to Rome. It became a wine-producing property in the sixteenth century.

In an area that is dominated by giant wineries, Rodano remains a small, family-run, artisanal estate practicing organic, traditional wine fermentations in cement and aging in large, neutral botte. The Fattoria di Rodano winery is a top source for classically made, user-friendly and complex Chianti, run by Enrico Pozzesi.

Rich in history and character, the Rodano wines are an excellent addition to your table - meats, cheeses, risotto - bring it on!

Meet Bosco De Medici

Poised at the foot of Mt Vesuvius is the ancient city of Pompeii. Once buried under ash and pumice, now home to Bosco de Medici.

It's a story rooted in the early years of '900, when the grandfather Raffaele discovered his passion for viticulture, walking through the rows of his property on the Vesuvius, while savoring the taste of nature. His passion took to the first wine-making experiments, in the wine cellar of a eighteenth-century farmhouse, property of the family, that can be visited today on their Pompeian estate.

Pompeian Rosso is made from 100% Piediroso grapes with rich, savory notes. Pompeian Bianco is made from 100% Caprettone with mineral hints that deepen the wine.
