casalife and boutique le trou present the shape of space June 15th 6-10pm

An evening where living has room and fashion unravels between sunset and shag

June 7, 2006: Toronto, ON ….casalife and boutique le trou have spun a contemporary cocoon with a high-fashion house party - Shape of Space June 15th from 6-10 pm at casalife in Liberty Village. Coming together in celebration of art, fashion and design – these two west-end trend setters provide us with an excuse to get dressed up at home with an event that features furniture, fashion and the modern relationship between the two.

The Shape of Space is a premier design event presenting a new vision of urban living. Aside from a spectator fashion show on shag, the combined fashion and interior design audience for this event will also have the opportunity to participate in live interior installations and tour the eco-conscious mini-home parked on artificial grass provided by Turf Design.

Boutique le trou, recognized for promoting Canadian talent in fashion, will sponsor the runway show and fashion installations. Casalife, a Toronto pioneer in furniture for the condo crowd will set the stage, with living, dining and bedroom vignettes where models sprawl in style. Inside the house, fashion design evolves with creations from undergrads, recent grads, new designers and internationally recognized fashion houses from across Canada. The runway show incorporates the many looks found at boutique le trou, mixing up the designers including: OBAKKI, Jason Matlo, Sunny Fong for VAWK, Karamea, Zoran Dobric, Lydia K, Juma and introducing Jason Meyers, expected to be the next Zac Posen. In keeping with Canadian style – Winnipeg's Positive Urban Lifestyle Experience (PULSE) Furniture will introduce their plug and play Infinity Sofa for maximum multi-function.

The green fairy, also known as Absinthe, will be flying around the room, VOGA, the fashion forward wine about to launch in Canada will walk on trays, 4copas sipping tequila will add some heat and Iceberg Vodka will cool it all down. ORO Caffe, in the Liberty Village, in conjunction with Via Oliveto finishes the fete with a canapé dinner, presenting invited guests to an urban adaptation of a rustic Italian tradition.
